

Installing NetPBX

To obtain a copy of the NetPBX software, contact our Technical Support team.

To install the software, double-click on the setup package and follow the setup wizard in order to complete the installation:

Once installed, you can access NetPBX via any standard web browser. To configure your controllers to collect and deliver your call logging data, refer to the Controllers section below.